DIGITAL LEGAL TALKS 2024

SUBMISSIONS GUIDELINES

Bringing together scholars of different disciplines covering digit(al)isation of society, we invite both junior and senior researchers to submit published or unpublished papers to present and discuss at the conference. You are also welcome to submit a panel proposal.

Submission link

Deadline
SEPTEMBER
15

HOW TO SUBMIT?

Please submit an extended abstract of your contribution of 1500 words max. to Oxford Abstracts: The Digital Legal Lab will host the fifth edition of its annual conference Digital Legal Talks on 28 and 29 November in Utrecht! It will be a fully in-person event. Accepted submissions in response to this call for papers will be scheduled for 28 November, and plenary sessions with invited speakers will be held on 29 November. Please indicate to which of the abovementioned lines of research your submission relates and whether you wish to present it as a paper, or in a PLSC-style paper discussion, or whether it is a proposal for a panel. There are no specific guidelines as regards formatting or referencing style.

app.oxfordabstracts.com/stages/5833/submissions/

The deadline for submissions is 15 September and the authors can expect notification of acceptance by 4 October.

We do not require you to submit full papers by the time of the conference, unless you wish to discuss them in a PLSC-style format. In that case, you will need to submit your full paper to us on 4 November at the latest.

Note that accepted submissions in response to this call for papers will be included in the program for 28 November. Plenary sessions with invited speakers will take place on 29 November.